

GT Care Awards – 2021 Nominations

Abigail H.

Abigail is nominated for helping to take care of her brother. “I am thankful that I can help care for my brother to give my mom a break and give him a break from his normal routine. Being a caregiver is a tough job, but when everyone helps out it makes it easier and more enjoyable. My favorite part of taking care of my brother is being able to do arts and crafts with him and go on walks. Every time he sees me, he point at the elliptical machine, he knows how much I encourage him to maintain an active lifestyle and I love that about him,” says Abigail.

Adrian L.

Adrian is nominated by her husband for the care she provides to him. “She is a wonderful, loving and patient person. Without her I don’t think I would have made it. She helps me with everything and is such a blessing to me! She is by my side every step of the way and is committed to helping me get better,” says Bernard.

Afton

Afton is nominated as the caregiver of the mother of her best friend. “I couldn’t be any more pleased with my job. I had a baby in 2019 and she was my rock at the time. She still lets me bring him to work and he knows her as Grammy,” says Afton.

Aggie W.

Aggie is nominated for always helping when Kelly can’t find anyone else. She will drive Kelly to appointments, do her laundry, help with food prep and other things. This is on top of helping her own family. “I don’t know how she does so much, and she does it all cheerfully,” says Kelly.

Alex

Alex is nominated because he is his mother’s full time caregiver. He left his life in another state to move home and care for his mom. Alex’s brother states that his mother has a better quality of life and her health has improved dramatically with Alex as her caregiver. “Alex deserves the world, he definitely has our gratitude and appreciation,” says Alex’s brother.

Alice H.

Jeane nominates Alice, who is the grandmother and caregiver for her son, Jake. After Jake become ill, Alice moved from CT to FL to help out and make sure her family wasn’t alone. Alice made the ultimate sacrifice and continues to help with Jake. In Alice’s eyes, Jake’s health, happiness, needs, and wants comes before anything else. Alice will do anything to put a smile on his face or to make his day a bit more bearable. Jeane says, “Jake and I are truly blessed to have Alice here with us. We don’t know what we would do without her.”

Alicia M.

Me estoy nominando, cuido a la señora Alicia Martínez una persona encantadora, me gusta mi trabajo y lo que hago. Ellos son una familia extraordinaria. Este trabajo me ha regalado una familia

Alissa

Maggie nominates caregiver Alissa, who she says is a “rock in our lives that we are so grateful for. We have been blessed to have her in our lives for more than 10 years. She and Whitney do so many things together from classes to exercise, cooking, and volunteering. We have been privileged to watch Alissa grow while remaining a constant for my Whitney. Thank you, Alissa!”

Alissa E.

Alissa is nominated as a caregiver with a heart of gold and the patience of a saint. No matter how hard the job is, she takes the time to talk to Catherine and share her life and spiritual journey. "It takes a special person to be a caregiver and friend and I am truly blessed to have her in my life, she is amazing," says Catherine.

Allison H.

I am nominating Allison Harris. She has been a caregiver to her intellectually disabled sister her entire life. She has been a caregiver, friend and sister, helping Hayley be the best person she can be. She has shown extraordinary patience, kindness, and empathy. Allison has been Hayley's advocate, helping her through the hard days and the good days. Allison has been a blessing to help support Hayley!

Alyssa F.

Barbara nominates her daughter's caregiver Alyssa. She says, "For Alyssa, there is nothing my daughter Emma cannot do! Alyssa encourages her and teaches her something new every day. She takes her to the park, farm, museum, garden, anywhere Emma can socialize and see new things. Through Alyssa's determination, she has given me hope that my daughter, who has a rare syndrome (Cri du Chat), understands more than I thought. Thank you, Alyssa, for being Emma's best friend, teacher, and caregiver!"

Alyssa S.

Alyssa is nominated for caring for Ollie. Alyssa is dedicated and kind and Ollie loves her so much!

Amancia M.

Amancia is nominated as the caregiver of Mirian's mother who has Alzheimer's. "Amancia is compassionate, patient, responsible and has all my mother's trust. She is the best caregiver I could ever imagine," says Mirian.

Amanda R.

Amanda is nominated for being Julie's caregiver. "She helps me through everything, she goes above and beyond. She has become family and takes the time to do extra care for my animals as well. Her heart is bigger than anyone else's," says Julie.

Ana T.

Ana is nominated for not only being a wonderful and sweet caregiver but also someone who will go the extra mile for her patients. Ana's patient's family says that it has been a blessing to have her and thanks her for amazing service and dedication.

Andrea

Caregiver Andrea is nominated by Veronica. "She is the caregiver to Ximena and a loving person."

Andrea V.

Andrea is nominated for being a wonderful caregiver and big help with Ximena.

Andrew L.

Lillian nominates her caregiver, her son Andrew. She explains, "He has been my caregiver for several years and is so caring towards me. Even though he is a young man with his own life, he takes care of me. He makes me feel like I can do just as much as anyone else. He has no idea how his precious time makes feel so special. So, to my son, thank you!"

Angie B.

Angie is nominated for caring for her son, Tyler. She has cared for Tyler 24/7 for the past 11 years as he is nonverbal and immobile as a result of cardiac arrest and now has an anoxic brain injury. "I'm so thankful to be able to stay home and care for him. It's been the best possible situation for him. He is my sunshine and I'm so thankful to be his caregiver," says Angie.

Ann C.

Ann is nominated by Leslie for being the caregiver for her son, John. Ann has consistently sparked progress in John who suffered a TBI. John now walks on a regular basis. Ann gets him out in the community daily whether for therapy or rides around town listening to country music. "Ann is extremely reliable, caring and a great addition to our family," says Leslie.

Ann H.

Ann is nominated for being an outstanding caregiver for Tamara's grandmother. Ann goes above and beyond what she needs to do including spending overnights and buying meals. Tamara says, "She lives to serve, and that is the greatest gift any of us could give."

Annette M.

Annette is nominated for being a caregiver to Comer's mother-in-law. "She volunteered for the job and her dedication has never stopped. Not only does she care for my mother-in-law, but she helps me and my grandson. She even helps when not scheduled, which has been many times since I lost my husband. She goes above and beyond, and I don't know where I'd be without her," shares Comer.

Annie G.

Annie is nominated for being a phenomenal caregiver to her son, Jerome. "She always goes above and beyond what is required of her. She is truly an example of faith and love in action. Jerome had a stroke in 2010 which resulted in paralysis of his left side. She has made major lifestyle changes to accommodate Jerome, such as making renovations to her home to make it wheelchair accessible throughout and conquering a court battle to gain a visitation schedule with her grandson so that Jerome can maintain a relationship with his child. She is the sole caretaker for Jerome and selflessly cares for him around the clock. She always puts the needs of others before her own. Jerome is always properly groomed, Annie even learned how to cut hair so he has a personal in-house barber. She masters any skill needed to provide the best care. A few years ago, my grandfather had a stroke and she nursed him back to health while still being the sole caregiver for Jerome. She handles all these responsibilities tirelessly and without complaint. Throughout all of this, she has remained active in her church and community. Somehow, she even finds time to be a blessing and babysit for her neighbor. My grandmother has always carried this taxing responsibility with an immeasurable amount of grace, even while recovering from her own surgery and health challenges. She is excellent at creating solutions to provide the best care possible, no matter what the need is. Her sacrifice and dedication is unmatched and does not go unnoticed. Without her unconditional love and care, it would be impossible for our family to thrive. We are truly grateful for her and no one is more deserving of recognition than our superwoman, Annie,” says her grandson Devin.

Antoinette W.

Lisa nominates her caregiver Antoinette. Lisa says, “Antoinette is a good caregiver. She takes good care of me and is always patient with me. She sings to me, and she helps me make plans for the holidays. I love how she treats me.”

Arlene C.

Arlene is nominated as a caregiver to Mickey. Arlene has worked with Mickey for the past two years and says, “She has no relatives, lives by herself, and can barely help herself. I made a promise to be with her, and as a caregiver, I give her immaculate care.”

Arlette W.

Arlette is nominated for being a caregiver to her father. “I’m the caregiver to my wonderful dad. I enjoy being with him every day. Getting him to smile makes my day with him special,” she says.

Ashley B.

Callan nominates her daughter’s caregiver, Ashley. “She has been taking care of my daughter since January. She is a true blessing and works so hard to take the best care of my daughter.”

Ashley B.

Ashley D.

Ashley is nominated for being a wonderful caregiver. She goes out of her way to make sure Dan is well taken care of.

Austin G.

Austin is nominated by his mother, Susan, who he cares for. Austin lives with his mother and goes above and beyond in caring for her. He is kind, caring and thinks of others and is always willing to help. Susan says, “He always knows what to do for me and has always done a fantastic job. I am extremely grateful for him.”

Autumn M.

Autumn is nominated for taking care of her mother-in-law, Kathy. “She is such a joy to take care of. She does everything with us and makes every day a pleasure,” says Autumn.

Barb G.

Barb is nominated for taking care of her son for his entire life. Barb always treats her son as normal as possible and even though he does very little talking, she knows he understands everything. She says her son is the joy of her life.

Barb K.

Barb is nominated for providing loving care to Ami and Heena by their mother, Kalpana. "She originally signed up to work eight hours per week, but now she has gone way above and beyond that. Barb always shows up on time to work her shift. She never calls in sick. Even during the height of Covid-19, she worked faithfully every week. Because of Covid-19, many of our staff quit, but not Barb. She picked up lots of extra shifts during Covid-19 and now she is working 20 or more hours per week. This is not easy for her since she has a lot of other responsibilities in her life. When one of our daughters is giving us a hard time, we often call Barb and she comes right over to help us calm our daughter down. She has gotten to know each of our daughters well and relates to them according to their personalities. She knows how to understand them, calm them, cheer them up and respond to their communication. Barb never complains about the work and she has a smile on her face as she works with the girls. She sings to them, plays with them, takes them outdoors for fresh air and gives them just what each one needs," says Kalpana.

Becky S.

Becky is nominated for taking care of her mom. She loves caring for her mom and doing the shopping and errands so her mom doesn't have to. Becky is very much appreciated for all her hard work!

Ben M.

Ben is nominated as an amazing young man and caregiver. Ben is always there to help when he is asked. He is a strong young man spiritually and physically and those he cares for feel blessed to have him.

Betty S.

Betty is a nominated caregiver. She says, "Being a caregiver is a very special occupation. It takes love, patience, and understanding. It's knowing that your purpose is just what it says, to care for those who are not able to do so by themselves, and then to give of yourself that which is needed. Sometimes it may mean giving a little bit more than you expected on a particular day, however, be willing to do more. Even though there are challenges, there are solutions."

Brandon R.

Jennifer nominates her husband Brandon for caring for her after a brain surgery went wrong. "I went from being a nurse to needing someone all the time. The doctors wanted to give up and call in hospice but Brandon fought for my life, found a surgeon and I lived. I lost most of my memory for the past few years, need help cooking, cleaning, bathing, walking, picking out clothes and what to eat. Still the love of my life takes care of me every day without a break. He is the best caregiver and fiancé anyone could ask for, plus he raises our two kids," says Jennifer.

Brenda S.

Brenda is nominated for providing wonderful care for Darlene's daughter. "She's awesome," says Darlene.

Brianna L.

Brianna is nominated for being her brother's caregiver. "Brianna goes above and beyond for Blake and her family. She is a true advocate for people with special needs. She helped her brother attend homecoming along with many talent shows and other community events. She is a wonderful, caring person," says Theresa.

Brittney L.

Brittney is nominated for caring for Mason for 19 faithful years. Mason calls her remarkable!

Caitlin T.

Nina nominates Caitlin, caregiver to her daughter Madelyn. "Caitlin is absolutely amazing. From day one, she and my daughter have had a bond. Caitlin always knows how to calm Madelyn down. It's like she reads her needs perfectly and addresses them immediately. Madelyn is non-verbal and has Cornelia De Lange syndrome. She is small for her age and has developmental delays. Caitlin is dependable, loving, and caring. She is a part of our family and goes on family outings to help care for Madelyn. I don't know what we would do without her. We are so thankful and blessed that she came into our lives to help make our sweet girl's life more enjoyable. She has no idea how grateful we are for all she does," shares Nina.

Candy L.

Candy is nominated by her daughter Terri. "She has been my daughter's caretaker for the last three years. My daughter is autistic and my mom helps by giving my husband and me time to get together and focus on us. Being parents of a special needs teenager can be stressful and if we are not our best, we can't give our daughter our best. My mom allows us to rest and destress so that we can always be our best. She is our best when we can't be," says Terri.

Paula's daughter (unnamed)

Paula would like to nominate her daughter for being her caregiver. Paula says, "My health struggles started at a younger age and she cares for me even though she's young herself! She helps with household things even though she has her own household to care for. I am so very proud of and thankful for her!"

Carly A.

Carly is nominated for the care she provides to her mother and others. Carly's clients always love to see her. Carly sees caregiving as a passion and not just a job.

Cecilia C.

Cecilia is nominated by her sister for being an exceptional caregiver to their mother. "She had a great job and gave that up to care for our mom who requires 24/7 care. I go to work every day with ease in my mind knowing that she is in the best hands possible. I couldn't be more thankful for Cecilia and all she does," says Joanne.

Chandra L.

Chandra is nominated as the caregiver of her grandmother. Chandra says, "My heart led me to what I truly love. As much as I help and do for her, she has helped me with her unwavering faith, funny old stories to make me laugh, and telling me little helpful hints when it comes to cooking. There's absolutely nothing I wouldn't do for her. I would never leave her. It's such a joy to learn and listen to her. Sometimes I wonder who's helping whom!"

Charla P.

Charla is nominated for taking care of her sister. Charla enjoys taking care of her and spending time with her. Charla is happy to have her sister at home.

We are both disabled and count on Cheryl to help us through life. She is more like our family. Cheryl has gone above and beyond what a caregiver would normally do. She is always available if we have a problem or an emergency. We trust and love Cheryl, are so thankful for her, are very blessed to have her, and pray that other people will be blessed to have as wonderful a caregiver. Thank you, Cheryl. You are priceless to us, and we are truly blessed."

Chris J.

I would like to nominate Chris Jones for his outstanding work.

Chris S.

Heidi would like to nominate her husband Chris. After head-on car crash right before their wedding, Heidi was bedridden for months. Chris stayed with her every second, only taking time away to care for his mom who had Alzheimer's. All while being there for his dad, running the house, and working 40 hours a week. Heidi says, "This man never complained of anything and always was there for me with a smile on his face. Chris is an unselfish, compassionate, loving human being! This incredible man who is mine. I often wondered what I did to deserve him. It's his nature, down in his core, to take care of people. I feel extremely lucky because he is now my husband and caretaker. And I could not ask for a more caring, more compassionate, more loving man."

Chris S.

Chris is nominated for his genuine concern, respect and kindness.

Christian S.

I would like to nominate my caregiver Christian. He's my life saver. Christian has been taking care of me for over a year before being able to pay him. I have RSD and have been dealing with it since 10/96. There is no cure for it and it gets worse as the years pass. Christian is there for me day and night even off the clock. He lives across the street from me. Christian is my angel. I have had other caregivers, but I couldn't of asked for a better one to care for me. I have been blessed.

Dora E.

Dora has been nominated for caring for Elizabeth's daughter. Elizabeth says that Dora has gone above and beyond for her daughter and been an incredible support to her. "Dora takes time out of her day just to check in on how we are doing; she has been a sympathetic ear and encouraging friend. She has been the support system I have been missing in my life - pretty impressive as she has many other clients, just finished her master's degree, and has two beautiful daughters of her own. Dora has been light on my dark days. Truly, she has been such a blessing to us both, I can't imagine how we ever got on without her. I went nearly a year and a half without a break and within a couple months, Dora had set up my daughter with respite care. She is always sharing resources and offering helpful suggestions. What's more - she has the same dedication and passion with every person she works for!

I've told Dora more than once 'you're my favorite person I've never met' - Covid has prevented us from meeting face to face, but the bond I have with this amazing woman is strong. You can't possibly imagine what it's like to have someone else care about your kid when you've had nobody. She feels like family and we are so grateful for all of her service to us and the community," says Elizabeth.

Dora's daughter (unnamed)
